There is no time we are not with you! Merely say the word, and you will feel our presence, receive our love, and understand the guidance that we have for you. There is no time you are alone. --A Message from the Angels

Do you long to create a direct connection with your guides, angels, saints and holy ones who are continually with us? Are you ready to become a Divine conduit--to learn to move outside yourself, step beyond ego and past expectation, into a place where these ascended masters and teachers can communicate with you clearly and completely?

Would you like to learn to communicate with the departed--beloved ancestors, friends and family who seek to support and encourage you? Indeed, these are simple tasks, available to everyone!

Learn how to create a direction connection: No previous experience is required for this course; all you need is an open heart, a sense of humor (the Divine loves a good laugh) and a keen curiosity as to the unique way that entities communicate with humans. Learning this Divine language or lexicon is a joyful, interesting and profound experience!

During the time you spend with these materials, you will learn how to become a Divine conduit for:

Spirit guides, including your earth guide, spiritual teacher and mystic guide--Divine beings who have been with your entire life and in previous lifetimes too!

Angels, those lovely high vibration beings who always seek to protect and heal. Saints, ascended masters and holy beings who so often make themselves known to us. The departed, especially the ancestors and loved ones who support you the most.

You'll also learn key ways to hold yourself in a state of highest vibration, so you never have trouble with and are always fully protected from: Pesky, foggy or murky spirits. Random departed who just want to "talk" or hang out. Low vibration energies such as old thought forms. How to deal with "random" spirit folk. Channeling as an aspect of communication. Divine infusions as the ultimate healing.
